EREMURUS

(Foxtail Lily)

You will be thrilled by the beauty of these rare and spectacular perennials. The sturdy flower clusters grow from 4 to 12 feet tall. They are easily grown and are very hardy if the soil is well drained. ORDER EARLY. We ship from September 1 to October 31, giving early orders our first attention. Many varieties will be sold out by the end of June.

This list cancels all previous quotations and prices given herein are subject to change without notice.

No. 1 Roots have produced blooms.

No. 2 Roots are large but have not yet produced blooms.

No. 3 Roots should bloom in three or four years.

Seedlings should bloom in five or six years.

UNLABELED ROOTS

These top-quality roots afford an economical way to start a collection. They are not sorted by name or color, and special selections cannot be made.
